Greetings!

Welcome in the Precious Name of Jesus! We are delighted to be your host of the Seventh Episcopal District State Lay Convention.

It is my prayer that while you are here that the Holy Spirit would bless your every undertaking.

Thomas W. Gillespie in his illuminating exposition entitled. "The Laity in Biblical Perspective" points out that the Greek work laos was used in the Septuagint for the Hebrew word 'am. This in turn is used almost exclusively for Israel -- the chosen people of God.

Today, we also are called to be the people of God -- to carry out God's mission in the world. All Christians are part of the laos. All believers, without exception, are sent into the world as witnesses and servants.

Let us come here these days to witness to the marvelous goodness of the Lord and let us depart to serve.

Yours in Christ,

Reverend Allen W. Parrott

Helen, the children and I are very pleased to share these memorable moments with the Central Conference Layman's League.

Greetings from Carson's Funeral Home and Staff, we pray God's blessings go with you during this historic event.

At Carson's Funeral Home, our facility is designed for your comfort and privacy - our chapel has a seating capacity of 200, and we have three individual slumber rooms. Our staff is courteous and will not hesitate to offer assistance.

One of our most positive aspects is: our competition is the family we serve, they deserve all of our attention. We faithfully pledge the following:

Service . . . . .What you will receive from us, not have to demand of us.

Dedication . . . . .To provide service at an affordable price for all.

Courtesy . . . . .An act done naturally deserving of everyone.

Facility . . . . .Designed for your comfort and privacy.

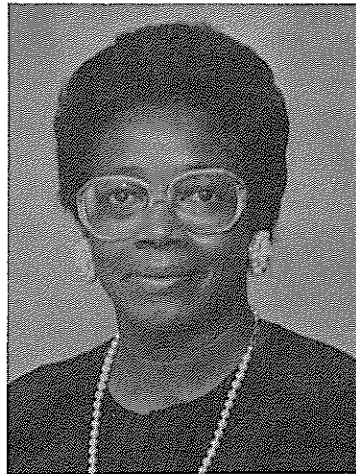

Questions . . . . .The only way we know how to answer, HONESTLY.

Arrangement . . .At your convenience, not our schedule.

Terms . . . . .To suit your individual needs.

Cost . . . . .The last factor - Service first.
